Brent,

Congratulations! I see that you are ready to take your final examination. Your final covers material from all text chapters and you have one attempt at the exam.

To prepare for your final exam:

- Take the practice exam in MathXL as many times as needed.
- Don't hesitate to contact me with any questions that come to mind.

To schedule your final exam:

- Login to Blackboard and click the Exams menu button. Read through the testing procedures file.
- Finally, click on the Online Exam Registration Link to schedule your test at one of the FSCJ assessment centers.

To take your final exam:

- Print this email and take it with you to the testing center. Present it to the proctor upon arrival.
- Your exam is in MathXL. Please remember that you will need your MathXL username and password to access MathXL.
- At the test site, login to MathXL and click the Homework and Tests menu button. Click the appropriate test link. Your proctor will enter a password so you can take the test. Once you are finished with the test, remember to log out of Blackboard.

Please remember to take the practice final in MathXL as many times as needed prior to taking your test. Study hard and prepare well!
